Nordiske Politimesterskaber I Fodbold

Sauðárkrókur

Entrance

The Nordic Police Championship in Football will be held at Sauðárkrókur in northern Iceland. Sauðárkrókur is a town of 2700 inhabitants and is in a 280 km driving distance from Reykjavík. It takes about 3 and a ½ to 4 hours to drive from Reykjavík to Sauðárkrókur with a bus. It is also a possibility to fly from Reykjavík to Sauðárkrókur and the flight takes about 35 minutes, but that option is more expensive than the bus.

Facilities

In Sauðárkrókur and surroundings are 5 fullsize football fields. There are 3 fullsize football fields in the town of Sauðárkrókur and the other 2 are in about 25 to 30 minutes driving distance from Sauðárkrókur.

The players accommodation in Sauðárkrókur is located beside the sportscentre and within walking distance of the swimmingpool and restaurants.

The final matchday is 17.june which is the Icelandic Independence day. That day the tournament party and awards are held at the Sportscentre with dinner and a band will play for guests afterwards. After midnight the Sportcentre will be open for other people so it should be a great entertainment for everyone.
